

The City is on the Move!
Move over... the Blue Nose is on the loose!

The Scotiabank Blue Nose Marathon returns again this year on the Victoria Day Holiday Weekend, Friday, May 15 to Sunday May 17, 2009.

Events kick off with the Doctors Nova Scotia Youth Run on Saturday, May 16, with all other race weekend events taking place on Sunday, May 17.

You're invited to take part in the celebrations — cheer on the runners, lend a hand as a volunteer or lace up your sneakers and giv'er!

Starting and finishing near the old Town Clock on Brunswick Street, race weekend events are designed to showcase Halifax and Dartmouth's beautiful landmarks, historic downtown streets, and scenic parks. Vistas and streetscapes that make our city so great.

Close to 10,000 runners/walkers and volunteers will participate in race weekend events. As a result, some intermittent traffic delays in your neighbourhood are expected.

Street closures will include:

Saturday, May 16 7:00am.-1:00 p.m.
Brunswick Street. (between Duke St. & Sackville St.)

Sunday, May 17 9:00am – 12 noon
Macdonald Bridge

Sunday, May 17 6:00 a.m.- 6:00 p.m.
Brunswick Street. (between Duke St. & Sackville St.)

Point Pleasant Park and Shubie Park will also be components of the race route on Sunday May 17, but will remain open to the public.

For full race route descriptions, schedules, and details about your neighbourhood, visit:
www.BlueNoseMarathon.com/EN/raceinfo

